

EACC Clinches Rwanda Varsity League Men's Volleyball Championship

Huye, Rwanda – June 2026 – East African Christian College (EACC) has been crowned the 2025/2026 Rwanda Varsity League Men's Volleyball Champions after an exhilarating 3–2 victory over the University of Rwanda in a thrilling final match. The victory marks a historic achievement for EACC and highlights the institution's growing excellence in university sports.

The championship final was fiercely contested, with both teams displaying exceptional skill, determination, and teamwork. EACC demonstrated remarkable resilience by overcoming a strong University of Rwanda side to secure the title in a five-set battle that kept fans on the edge of their seats.

The triumph reflects months of hard work, disciplined training, and unwavering commitment from the players, coaching staff, and the entire EACC sports department. Throughout the Rwanda Varsity League season, the team consistently showcased outstanding performances, earning their place among the country's top university volleyball teams.

Speaking after the victory, the EACC Sports Department congratulated the team for their dedication and for proudly representing the college.

"This championship is a testament to the commitment, discipline, and teamwork of our student-athletes. We are incredibly proud of this remarkable achievement and congratulate every player, coach, and supporter who contributed to this success."

The victory further strengthens EACC's reputation as an institution committed not only to academic excellence but also to developing well-rounded students who excel in sports, leadership, and character.

EACC extends its sincere appreciation to the students, alumni, staff, supporters, and the entire college community for their unwavering encouragement throughout the tournament.

Congratulations to the EACC Men's Volleyball Team for bringing the Rwanda Varsity League Championship home!
